A Message from Karsten Frentrup Business Manager/Financial Secretary

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Brother William Myers (left) won the door prize at the May General Membership Meeting. The check was for $1,620.00. The Local Union decided at the July 2012 meeting that we would draw from a pot holding every eligible member's card number at each meeting. If that member was not present, we would allow the door prize (roughly one month's dues) to be carried over and added to the next months door prize. This process continued for almost 4 years and Bro. Myers is the first winner. At the July General Membership the body adopted a new process adding an additional monthly door prize where only those members present are eligible.

Martha Dobbs, Local 59's sweetheart, husband attended the April meeting. His driver for the day was Howard the eldest Lovelace twin. Robert told us that Martha was now in an assisted living home because of failing physical health. Bet it is a lively place now. A Growing Concern brought some cat by the name of Bernie Sanders. They sat with Phil Morton, Jerald McCord, Charles Creech, Bruce Denham and Walter Dolehite at the North end of our very full table. They made so much noise that Bill Klassen and Bobby McPherson had to turn their hearing aids off. Don Illingworth came part of the way by boat or so he claimed. Jerry Southerland did not win the door prize. But neither did Tony Loria, Goober Morris and the two Mike's that do not have an off switch. Mike Bryant and Mike O'Quinn held down the South end of the table. Dennis Rook and Charlie McClure anchored the middle of the fray.

May meeting of the "Has Been Club" was called to order by acting head potentate, Alan Head. This club is about nothing, so nothing was brought up much to the delight of Charles McClure, Jimmy Ray Miramontes, Bruce Denham, Phillip Morton, Michael Bryant, Walter Dolehite, Tom Randolph, Tony Loria, Dennis Rook, Jerald McCord, Bob Ayers, Alton Fry, Charles Creech, Richard Covington, and special guest Mike Partridge. Am sad to report that Jerry Southerland did not win the door prize.

Has Been's met June 15th. The son of Ray Miramontes, Jimmy Ray, kept Charles Creech and Jerald McCord laughing and telling lies at the south end of the table. While on the north end, Charles McClure and Ray Walker held court. Tom Randolph stated that he was mistreated by only one person while an Apprentice. Ted Webb stated that he too was mistreated by one person, but couldn't remember his name. When asked by Walter Dolehite, what the crime was, Ted said he could not remember that either. Bill Thomas did not win the door prize and neither did Jerry Southerland. In the center of the table, Alton Fry and Dennis Rook discussed why Bill Bolton and Rodger Warren were not there.

Fraternally,

Karsten Frentrup – Bus. Mgr./Fin. Sec.
